UPCOMING UTAH STATE PARKS EVENTS

January – March 31 Edge of the Cedars State Park Museum - Blanding
Range Creek Exhibit: Enjoy this informative display explaining the history of human interaction with the land at Range Creek. Range Creek, once a private ranch situated near the Book Cliffs, is the site of a large complex of Fremont habitations. The area, now protected by the state of Utah, has been the recent location of excavation and research in an effort to learn more about the Fremont people. (435) 678-2238

January 10 Snow Canyon State Park – Ivins
Sunset Hike: Explore the twilight sights and sounds of the canyon during a two-mile, round trip evening hike at 4:30 p.m. (435) 628-2255

January 12 Wasatch Mountain State Park - Midway
Animal Tracks and Scat: Join park staff from 10 a.m. to noon to learn about animal tracks and scat. Winter is a great time to look for signs of wildlife. Many animals stay active all winter long, and learning to recognize tracks and scat can help make any winter outing more enjoyable. Meet at the Educational Yurt. Snowshoes are available. (435) 654-1791

January 12 Jordanelle State Park - Heber
Basic Snowshoeing: Join the park naturalist from 10 a.m. to noon to learn basic snowshoeing skills, techniques and benefits of this winter sport. Start at the visitor center for a brief presentation, followed with a walk in the park. Snowshoes are available. (435) 649-9540
